ONLINE HINDUSTANI VOCAL CLASSES FOR CHILDREN

Instructor-led Live Classes

ABOUT MUSIC PANDIT

Music Pandit is a virtual e-learning music school created by a group of people brought together by their love for music and desire to offer a platform that delivers the best music-learning experience.

With years of musical education background, our team has thoughtfully created the right learning materials with visual aids and fun activities for our students. This has been done to ensure critical elements such as human interaction and collaborative learning takes place seamlessly within our platform.

The team at Music Pandit comes with over a century of collective experience in delivering Music Education, Music Teaching Methodology, Music Curriculum Development, Music Performance and more.

In essence, we bring you a complete 360-degree approach to learning music online. Additionally, we learn and develop new methods every day for our students, musicians, and educators to perform, learn, connect, and interact with one another.

Music Pandit is a venture of BlueTimbre Music Private Limited based out of Bangalore, India. BlueTimbre started its journey into Music Education in March 2016 – working with students & schools all over Bangalore. Through Music Pandit, we now offer Music Education worldwide to over 26,000+ students from over 36 countries.

About Online Music Classes

Introducing our online music classes for children. We offer live music classes for children 6 years onwards. Our new online platform has been developed specifically for learning music online seamlessly and even offers a classroom-like environment. The online platform layout has further been made simple so that even a child can navigate around easily.

We follow a teaching method where we simplify music concepts and help our students have fun and at the same time explore creative expression either through their singing or the different instruments that they play. With our trained and certified faculty, proprietary learning materials, workshops, timely support, and performance training we aim to offer a holistic music learning experience to our students.

Highlights

- Course Dashboard to Help Students Stay on Top of Their Learning
- Proper Assessment and Evaluation Using Established International Benchmarks & Music Exam Boards.
- Online Discussion Boards, Connect and Communicate with Peers

HINDUSTANI VOCAL CLASSES POPULAR SONGS

As music educators we understand the profound impact that music can have on a child's development, nurturing their creativity, discipline, and cultural appreciation. At Music Pandit School, our online Hindustani vocal course is designed to ignite your child's passion for this art form while fostering essential life skills.

Imagine your child immersed in a world of ragas and taals, guided by renowned Hindustani gurus who are not only exceptional teachers but also masters at inspiring young minds. Through our live instructor-led interactive sessions, your child will embark on a captivating journey, exploring the melodic frameworks and rhythmic intricacies that are the pillars of Hindustani music.

But our course is more than just learning songs or technical training; it's a gateway to personal growth. As your child understands and builds the discipline required to master vocal techniques, they'll develop focus, perseverance, and even a reverence for cultural heritage. In essence, all these qualities will serve them well in all aspects of life.

By introducing your child to Hindustani singing style, you'll not only be equipping them with a lifelong appreciation for their cultural roots but simultaneously fostering their artistic expression.

Join our online Hindustani vocal course and witness their transformation into confident, culturally-grounded musicians. Invest in your child's holistic development today.
